Local Mention.

Give us your job work.

Gardeners are getting busy all over now.

Don't be too impatient; there is still time for another snow or so.

Joe Morgan, your laundry.

Mr. Buren Martin was in Louisville a few days last week on business.

Plenty of chicks are reported, but there is some trouble in raising them, as usual.

"Unceadit," a new drink, at Taylor & Poole's drug store.

Mr. John X. Taylor and wife are at home in the F. H. Lewis residence, on Main street.

Mr. James Louis Roark was at home Saturday and Sunday, coming down from Louisville.

Telephone No. 5 and your laundry will be called for and delivered.

Mr. F. H. Lewis and family have moved into the Countzler property, which Mr. Lewis recently bought.

Mrs. Sam Arnold and family have moved into the Curd residence, on College street, and will occupy it until their new home is ready.

Have Barkley Bros. repair your shoes, and prevent a fire loss.

Mrs. J. M. Stuart and son, Joseph, of Owensboro, were here several days during the week, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. S. D. Bradley and family have moved to the Nichols residence, east Main cross street, and Mr. J. L. Morgan and family have moved into the Heltsley house, vacated by Mr. Bradley.

Yellow Danver Onion Sets five cents per quart. This is the best onion yet. C. M. Howard.

Sunday was a fair day, the first Sunday for several weeks, and great numbers of people were enjoying the pleasant weather by walking, driving and riding, many persons going into the country for the day.

Mr. D. S. Duncan has moved the residence he recently bought from Mr. L. Z. Kirkpatrick to the lot adjoining, and will occupy it while he is building his new home on the lot just vacated. This will be a great improvement to that section of town, which has fallen somewhat behind the last few years in the general development of the city.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Next Sunday afternoon the delegates to the Y. M. C. A. convention at Danville, will give the report from the convention. The meeting will be at 3 o'clock. This was the best convention ever held in the State, and the reports will be very interesting. All men and boys are invited to be present.

The Junior Bible class will meet this week as usual on Thursday afternoon at 5:45.

Colonel Lear Falls Off Train.

Colonel Lear, a well known character, walked off a train on the O. & N. railroad soon after it pulled out south from Central City last Monday afternoon, and fell down an embankment some fifty feet. He was bruised up some, and scratched, but not seriously hurt. It is said that he had been drinking, and got on the wrong train, and when he discovered it he unloaded. Lear came here Tuesday on the noon train, and did not look much the worse for his escapade.

If you want more and better eggs, fat and healthy chickens, buy 100 lbs. mixed chicken feed. Price $2. C. M. Howard.

Four Residences Burn at Central City.

Four residences in Central City, the property of the Beaver Dam Planing Mill Co. burned about 7:30 o'clock Monday night. Only one of the buildings was occupied, and it was in this that the fire originated, from a defective flue, it is supposed. On account of having no water pipes to the properties, all the buildings were quickly in ashes, as they were frame structures, and adjoined closely.

Protracted Revival Closes.

The series of revival services that had been conducted for two weeks at the Methodist church closed with the service Sunday night. Rev. G. W. Hummel, of Central City, was the speaker, and delivered many able addresses, and made many warm friends among our people. There were about a score of conversions, and eleven of the converts joined the Methodist church at the Sunday morning service.

Joe Morgan solicits that grocery order, and will show his appreciation by supplying the best goods at the very lowest prices. Quick delivery and courteous treatment.

Fire Does Small Damage.

An alarm of fire about 9:15 o'clock last Thursday morning drew the department to the residence of Mr. J. C. Stokes at the foot of the town hill, near the depot, the house being occupied by Mr. Boyd and family. The fire was caused by a spark lighting on the roof, and was seen by some school children, who gave the alarm at once, and the slight flame was extinguished by the neighbors before the department arrived. The loss was light.

NOTICE!

All parties who are indebted to the firm of R. Martin & Co. are earnestly requested to call and make full settlements as soon as possible, as we are compelled to collect all outstanding debts in order to make settlement with the R. Martin estate.

Correction of Dates.

My attention has kindly been called to an error, in regard to the building of the railroad mentioned in the sketch of Powderly recently published. The cut was built in 1871 instead of 1861, and Hume Harris was not a contractor. The work was not completed to Greenville until the 4th day of July 1871, nearly eleven years after the time mentioned in the sketch.

AMY M. LONGEST.

Card of Thanks.

We cannot express the feelings of gratitude which we entertain toward our friends and neighbors, who stood so nobly by us during the protracted illness of our beloved mother. And when the end came, their sympathy and help sustained us. May heaven's richest blessings be theirs.

Sells 25 House Patterns.

The Greenville Coal Co. has just closed a contract with the Greenville Milling Co. for 25 house patterns complete, the coal company arranging to begin at once the construction of that many houses at the new opening at Martwick, between Nelson and Rockport. This is one of the most modern plants in western Kentucky, and will have an immense output when at full working capacity. The coal is of fine quality, and the company has some 4,000 acres in the tract.

Odle McLavaine Dies of Pneumonia.

Mr. Odle McLavaine, aged 20 years, died at the home of his father, Mr. A. L. McLavaine, near Luzerne, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of nine days from pneumonia. His condition was serious from the first, and for a few days it had been realized that recovery was doubtful. The body was embalmed, and is being held for the arrival of a sister who lives in Pine Bluff, Ark. Interment will be made in the graveyard at Nebo, tomorrow afternoon, it is thought.

An Old Citizen Dies.

Mr. William Carver, one of the well known citizens of Muhlenberg, died at his home about a mile from Cisney Tuesday, after an illness of some weeks from ailments incident to his age. Burial was at Cisney yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. Mr. Carver was one of the pioneers of his section, and was a popular man. His death removes a leading character from that part of the county, and his family has the most sincere sympathy of all.

system are on the point of striking, the majority having voted a strike unless better arrangements of wages and working conditions are granted. A raise of 25 per cent. in wages is asked, but the company declares this cannot be granted. It is hoped that a settlement may be reached, as a strike of the operators would make conditions very bad.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to acknowledge our deepest gratitude and heartfelt thanks to our loyal neighbors and friends, who rendered constant help and service during the prolonged illness of our wife and mother, and whose sympathy have sustained us in our sorrow. These acts shall ever be cherished in our memory.

JOHN COOMBS, J. E. COOMBS.

The clock on the court house has been keeping the people guessing for the past week or so, as it has been cutting all sorts of pranks. It frequently refuses to run at all, and when it starts up makes effort to catch up on its losses in striking, spinning along at a lively rate. It is hoped that it has quit its misbehaving, as we have grown to depend greatly on its timing and tolling the passing hours.

THE RECORD 50c. per year.

Powderly.

Miss Lillian Cornwell from Tennessee has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Simmons, for several weeks.

Mrs. L. Heltsley and Miss Beula Mercer are visiting Browder, Rochester, and other places this week for the interest of the Ladies' Aid.

Rev. Barbee filled his regular appointments Saturday night and Sunday at the Christian church.

Mrs. Leona Hunt from Morgan's, visited relatives here last week.

Mr. Clelland Kyle and wife from near Greenville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sparks.

Mrs. Roxie Simmons entertained at dinner Wednesday, those present were Mesdames W. W. Ballard, S. Hays, J. Mooningham, Miss Lillian Cornwell and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Frazier.

House and Land for Rent.

The Captain Roark property, 7 room house, stable, fine water, several acres of land, ready for cultivation located just outside of town, on two streets, will be rented reasonably. Fine location, desirable home. Apply to Orien L. Roark, Greenville, Ky.

Methodist Church.

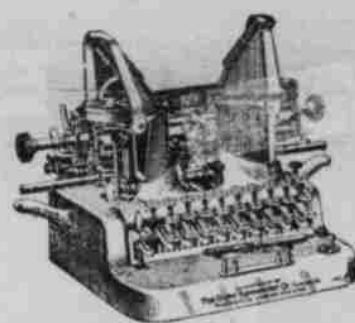

The meeting closed Sunday night with nineteen professions of faith and ten additions to the church. The excellent preaching by Rev. Hummel and his work in the meeting gave general satisfaction, and we feel that many lives were blessed and the church revived. There will be no preaching next Sunday morning. The pastor will preach at Lovell's Chapel in the morning, but he will preach here at 7:15 p. m. Let's pray and work for a great Sunday school next Sunday. Come and join the Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. G. P. DILLON, Pastor.

Sentence Sermons.

The Wisdom of Israel Zangwill: We name a thing and lo! its wonder flies. With what subtle instinct the Hebrew refused to pronounce the name of his Deity!

Why quarrel over religions when all men agree—all men, that is at the same grade of intellect?

'Tis not only the grave that parts us from our comrades and lovers; we lose them on the way; they broaden and narrow away from us, and we from them.

Death for us all we have missed, all the periods and planets we have not lived in, all the countries we have not visited, all the books we have not read, all the emotions and experiences we have not had. Every restriction is a piece of death.

Away with these cemeteries of stone; they are indecent; let me fade into the anonymous grass!

The word museum is surely short for mausoleum. For objects in a museum are dead, their relations with life are ended, they are as dead as finger nails.

How full of life seems a cannon, as it belches death! Yet it is an uncouth creature, long since outgrown among the humanized citizens of the planet; some day it will be hunted out like the wolf and the bear, with a price upon its mouth.

An institution must be propped up by precedent when it is no more uplifted by sap.

There are two torrents that amaze me to consider; the one is Niagara, the other the stream of prayer falling perpetually in the Roman Catholic church. There be those that cannot bear that Niagara should fall and thunder in mere sublimity, but only to such will this falling thunder of prayer seem waste.

That the earth goes round the sun is nothing against its supremacy or central position. It exists for the meat and not the men.

It is doubtful whether satisfaction can come as the sequel of any but an involuntary belief.

O, what a tangled web we weave When first we practice to believe!

Full life exists in three dimensions. Art in two, and Science in one; like a solid, a superficies, and a line.

Plants have movement without will, animals have the will to live, human beings have the will to live divinely.

Even the popular evolution theory is but a juggling with time. You do not get rid of creation by shifting the beginning back to a billion years last Tuesday.

Why not buy your goods from a firm that will give you the worth of your money, all the time. We do not have fits; we do legitimate business all the time. C. M. Howard.

Eating for Strength.

The greatest pleasure to be derived from eating is the pleasure one gets in the knowledge that his food is giving him greater strength and vitality.

Because of this fact there is a constant increase in the consumption of Quaker Oats: every time the strength making qualities of Quaker Oats have been tested by scientific investigation or by experiments in families it has been found to be a food without an equal.

It builds the muscles and brain without taxing the digestive organs; it costs so little anyone can afford it, and it is so carefully prepared and packed that it is absolutely pure and clean. A Quaker Oats eating family is always a healthy family.

Quaker Oats is packed in regular size packages and also in large also family packages. The latter very convenient for those not near the store.
